1 Reading

- A What is small talk? When do people use small talk? Tell the class.
- B Read the title of the article and the introduction on the left. Think of a tip. Then read the whole article. Was your tip mentioned?

Reading tip

First, read and think about the title. Try to predict three ideas in the article.

Improve your skills and "SMALL TALK" your way to success

According to some surveys, the ability to make small talk is important for social and professional success. Chatting about topics like the weather or weekends helps you connect with people, and that can be the key to making friends or business contacts. You don't have to be outgoing to make small talk. Just follow these easy tips.

- 1 SMILE and say "Hello" when you meet someone new. Say your name and shake hands. Try to repeat the person's name: "Nice to meet you, Mariana."
- 2 MAKE a comment about your surroundings – for example, the weather ("It's really cold today.") or the event ("There are a lot of people here.").
- 3 ASK questions. Try to find something you have in common: "Are you new to the company, too?" However, don't ask very personal questions, for example about someone's salary or age.
- 4 LISTEN actively. Show interest with comments like "Oh, really?" or "That's interesting." Keep eye contact, and don't look around the room during your conversation.
- 5 LEARN about what's going on in the world, so you can add to any discussion.
- 6 TAKE your time. Don't rush the conversation, and don't look at your watch. It can seem rude.
- 7 ANSWER people's questions with interesting or funny stories. People love stories and will remember you.
- 8 LEAVE politely. To end a conversation, say something like, "Well, it was nice talking to you." or "Great meeting you. Good luck with your job search!"
- 9 KEEP in touch. Send a quick email or text message. Say, "It was good to meet you."

- C Read the sentences below. Which tips from the article are they examples of? Write the number of the tip.

1. "Well, it was great talking with you. By the way, here's my card." ____
2. "So, what kind of work do you do?" ____
3. "The desserts look really good." ____
4. "Hi, Carlos. Pleased to meet you. I'm Frank." ____
5. "Wow! That sounds amazing!" ____
6. "Well, I often go biking on the weekends. Actually, last weekend I got lost and . . ." ____

D Pair work Discuss the questions below.

1. Read tip 2 again. Can you think of another example comment?
2. Read tip 3 again. What other good questions can you think of?
3. Read tip 5 again. What is going on in the world at the moment? Choose two topics that you can use in a conversation.
4. Read tip 7 again. Do you have a funny story you can tell? What is it?
5. Can you think of one more tip on how to improve your “small talk” skills?

2 Writing How to improve . . .A Brainstorm ideas for each topic and write notes.B Read the Help note and the extract from an article below. Correct the punctuation.Help note*Punctuation

- Use a CAPITAL letter to start a sentence.
- Use a comma (,) before quotation marks (“ ”) and in lists.
- Use a period (.) at the end of a statement and a question mark (?) at the end of a question.

- C Write an article on one of the topics you brainstormed above. Give three tips. Then read a partner's article and check the punctuation. Can you think of another tip?

1 Reading

- A What can you do to stay healthy? How many ideas can you think of in 30 seconds? Make a list.
- B Read the article. Which of your ideas are mentioned? What other ideas does it suggest?

Reading tip

Articles sometimes start with a problem (for example, Let's face it: many of us are not too healthy.) and then continue with possible solutions (exercise, etc.).

Rethink Your Way to Great Health

Let's face it: many of us are not too healthy. We often take an "all or nothing" approach to health. If we can't exercise every day, follow a healthy diet, or manage our stress levels, then we give up and do nothing. However, looking after our health doesn't have to take a lot of time and effort. It just takes a little thought. Follow these simple ideas and rethink your way to better health!

First, get moving. How much are you exercising these days? Not a lot? Research shows not exercising is really bad for your health. If you can't afford to go to the gym, go running. Skip the elevator and take the stairs; don't take the bus or train all the way – walk. Or, try exercising while you watch TV.

Second, don't forget to take a break from work sometimes. Our bodies can't go, go, go all day! We need to take regular breaks. If work is stressing you out, take a few deep breaths in between tasks. Try a relaxation technique, like meditation, or take a relaxing ten-minute walk.

Next, be sure to make good food choices. When you get stressed, do you reach for a cookie? Don't snack on junk food. Plan ahead and keep healthy snacks like fruit or nuts nearby. When you go shopping, buy only healthy foods for your next meal. If you have to order fast food, choose something light, go easy on the dressings, and add a healthy side dish like a salad or fruit.

Finally, remember to sleep well. Don't fall asleep with the TV on.

When you go to bed, make sure your room is quiet, cool, and dark. Research shows it's the best way to get a good night's sleep.

With simple changes like these, you can rethink your way to great health, one choice at a time. It's up to you!

- C Read the article again. Answer the questions. Then compare with a partner.

1. Why do some people stop exercising and eating well?
2. What relaxation technique does the article mention?
3. What are some examples of healthy snacks from the article?
4. What healthy options do you have when you eat fast food?
5. What kinds of things can you do to get more exercise?
6. What can help you get a good night's sleep?

About you

- D Pair work Discuss the suggestions in the article. Do you follow any of them? If yes, which ones? If no, say why not.

2 Listening Coping with stress

A What do you do to cope with stress? Do you do any of these things? Tell a partner.

B 1.31 Listen to four people talk about how they cope with stress. Number the pictures 1 to 4.

C 1.32 Listen again. What else do they do when they're feeling stressed? Write the activity under the picture.

3 Writing That's great advice!

A Read the Help note and the posts on a social networking site. Add commas to the if and when clauses in the two suggestions.

Logged in as Susana

Susana
I get colds all the time. Any suggestions?

Mi-young
Try exercising more. Go to the gym or go jogging. If you get a cold take vitamin C and drink a lot of water.

Luis
Are you stressed? When I get stressed I get a lot of colds. Try to get plenty of sleep if you feel stressed. Take more breaks if you get stressed at work.

Help note

Commas after if and when clauses

- Use a comma here:
If you're feeling stressed, try these ideas.
When you feel stressed, go to the gym.
- Don't use a comma here:
Go to the gym when you feel stressed.

B Write your own suggestion to Susana. Then compare with a partner.

About you C Group work Write a question about your health on a piece of paper. Use the ideas below to help you. Then exchange papers. Write a reply to each person.

Marla
I'm not sleeping at night. Help!

Derin
I want to get in shape. What can I do?

About you D Group work Read the replies. Which suggestion(s) would you like to try? Tell the group.

1 Reading

A What do people in your country do for these events?

They exchange rings.

B Read the article. Which traditions are similar to the ones in your country? Which are different?

Reading tip

Look at the photos. They can sometimes help you with the vocabulary in an article.

Let's celebrate!

Although people around the world celebrate many of the same events, they sometimes celebrate these special days quite differently. We found some interesting – and unique – traditions for celebrating New Year's Eve, birthdays, and weddings.

What is the new year going to bring?

NEW YEAR'S EVE

In Mexico, people celebrate the start of the new year by getting together with friends and family. On New Year's Eve, they have a special dinner. Then, when the clock strikes midnight, everyone starts eating grapes – one for each month of the next year. A sweet grape means the month is going to be a good one. If a grape is sour then the month is not going to be so good.

BIRTHDAYS

In China, there's an interesting birthday tradition for infants. A baby is one year old on the day he or she is born. One year later, friends and relatives get together for the baby's second birthday. They put several objects in front of the baby, such as some money, a doll, and a book. If the baby picks up the money, it means he or she is going to be wealthy. Reaching for the book means the baby is going to be a teacher, and picking up the doll means the baby is going to have a lot of children one day.

What's this baby's future?

Are these newlyweds going to have good luck?

WEDDINGS

Weddings around the world have different traditions, and Venezuela is no exception. Of course, during a wedding ceremony, couples promise that they will always love and take care of each other. However, in Venezuela, the bride and groom don't always say their promises – sometimes they sing them. Later, during the reception, the bride and groom sneak away. If no one sees them leave, it means they are going to have good luck in their marriage. And that seems to be something that all these traditions have in common – they are all meant to bring good luck.

 Tom Not really. Well, I remember my first day of school. Actually, I don't remember the day, but I remember on the way home, I missed my bus stop.
 Jessica Oh, no!
 Tom Yeah. And I kept riding around until I was the last kid on the bus.
 Jessica So, how did you get home?
 Tom Well, the teacher, I mean, the bus driver, had to call and find out my address and everything, and he took me home.
 Jessica So that was when you were five?
 Tom Yeah. Uh . . . no, wait . . . I was only four. I started school early.

C Notice how Tom corrects the things he says with expressions like these: Actually; Well; No, wait. Find examples in the conversation.

1 Reading

A Brainstorm the word teenager. What do you think of? Make a class list.

teenager: parties, loud music, fights with parents

B Read the interview. What, if anything, do you have in common with Joe?

Reading tip

After you read, reflect. Compare your answers to the questions with the interviewee's.

Teenage Years

AN INTERVIEW WITH JOE HODGSON. JOE GRADUATED FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF MANCHESTER, ENGLAND WITH A DEGREE IN GENETICS.

1. Where were you born? Did you spend your teens there?

I was born in a small town near Manchester. I spent my teens there until I went to university* when I was 18.

2. What's one thing you remember about school?

I had a lot of fun with all my friends, playing soccer and pool. We used to try and sneak out of school during breaks to go to the sweet shop* around the corner.

3. What were your best subjects in school and your worst?

My best subject was science, especially biology, and that's what I ended up doing for my degree. My worst subject was algebra. I was never very good at it.

4. How did you spend your free time?

I spent a lot of time playing sports – soccer, cricket, and handball. I also did a lot of music – I played trumpet in the school orchestra. I sang in the choir as well.

5. What fashions and trends do you remember from your teen years?

The fashion I remember most was "emo" fashion because that was something I used to wear. We wore slim-fit jeans, black T-shirts and like most of my friends, I had long hair.

6. What was the most difficult thing about being a teenager?

Being stuck between being a kid and being an adult – so trying to balance the two. I think most teens feel that way.

I wanted to be treated like a true adult some of the time, and like a kid at other times. It was frustrating when someone got the "wrong" age.

7. What's the happiest memory you have from your teen years?

I played handball for my college team, and my happiest memory was when I was picked to play for England when I was 17. It was such a great feeling when I heard the national anthem and knew I was representing my country.

8. Who or what influenced you when you were a teenager? What did you learn?

My parents influenced me a lot, although I only really appreciated it when I was older. Some of my best friends influenced me, too. They all taught me the value of hard work, and of being yourself and enjoying that.

9. What do you miss about your teen years?

I miss the lack of responsibility! Now I have to worry about so much stuff like work and money, so I miss being a teenager because everything was a lot easier then.

10. What's one piece of advice you would give to today's teenagers?

Enjoy it! Have lots of fun. It's a great time – so have a great time.

*go to university = go to college
*sweet shop = candy store

1 Conversation strategy Checking information

A What kind of information do people ask a concierge when they are staying in a hotel?
Make a class list.

They ask for directions to restaurants.

B 2.29 Listen. What places does the concierge recommend? Where does Maria decide to eat?

Concierge Hello. Can I help you?
Maria Um, are there any nice places to eat around here?
Concierge Excuse me? Did you say places to eat?
Maria Yes, but not fast food.
Concierge OK. Well, there's a Mexican restaurant within walking distance.
Maria Within walking distance?
Concierge Yes. It's right down the street. It gets great reviews. Or there's a Vietnamese place on Park Avenue. That's really good.
Maria I'm sorry? There's a Vietnamese place where?
Concierge Park Avenue. But it's always busy. There's usually about a 15-minute wait.
Maria Did you say fifteen or fifty?
Concierge Fifteen.
Maria Oh, OK. Well, that sounds good. Could you give me directions?

C Notice how Maria and the concierge check information. They repeat words as a question or use "checking" expressions. Find examples in the conversation.

*"There's about a 15-minute wait."
"Fifteen or fifty?"*

Checking expressions:
I'm sorry?
Excuse me?
Did you say . . . ?
What did you say?

D 2.30 Complete the conversations with the missing words. Then listen and check. Practice with a partner and continue the conversations.

Here are some more examples:

- A Is there a drugstore around here?
 B I'm sorry, a what?
 A It opens at 10:00.
 B Excuse me? It opens at what time?

2.31 Complete the conversations with “echo” questions. Use the words in the box. Then listen and check. Practice with a partner.

how far how much ✓what what kind of when where

B I'm sorry, any what ?
- A Is there an outdoor swimming pool around here?
B Actually, there is. It's opposite the park.

3 Listening and strategies Tourist information

A 2.32 Listen to the start of six conversations at a visitor center. What do you think each person says next to check the information? Number the sentences 1 to 6.

1 Reading

A What do you know about Istanbul? Make a class list.

It's in Turkey.

B Read the website below. Find one thing you didn't know about Istanbul and one thing you knew already.

Reading tip

Writers sometimes define words they use with a dash:
Enjoy a cup of chay – Turkish tea.

http://www.discoveringturkey...

3 days in Istanbul...

Is there any other city quite like Istanbul? Europe and Asia meet in this fascinating and lively place. With amazing sights, sounds, and smells on every corner, it's a must-see for everyone!

Day 1: START WITH A WALKING TOUR Your tour begins at Gülhane Park. Enjoy the shaded lawns and beautiful gardens, and walk toward the famous Topkapi Palace. The museum has incredible jewels, gold, and works of art. Then walk through the palace grounds for fabulous views across the Bosphorus. Walk back into the park and enjoy a cup of chay – Turkish tea – at one of the little outdoor cafés.

Outside the park, walk down one of the little cobblestone streets with traditional wooden houses. Find your way to the seventeenth century Blue Mosque – named for the blue tiles on its inside walls. Then walk north for a couple of blocks and visit the beautiful Hagia Sophia mosque – now a museum.

Day 2: SHOP TILL YOU DROP Start your day at the colorful and bustling Grand Bazaar. There are thousands of shops with everything from gold and silver to beautiful Turkish rugs. You'll find plenty of souvenirs here to take home with you. Then head north and continue to the fabulous spice market.

For a quick lunch, go to one of Istanbul's pastry shops and try a borek – a pastry with a cheese or meat filling. Delicious!

Spend the rest of your day exploring the fashionable area of Nisantasi, with its designer shops and exciting nightlife. Ready to drop? End your day at one of Istanbul's famous Turkish baths.

Day 3: TAKE A TRIP ON THE RIVER Today, take the local ferry from Eminonu to Anadolu Kavagi. Don't forget your camera so you can take spectacular photos of palaces, old houses, and forts along the way. Then, before the boat returns, be sure to have a leisurely lunch at one of the seafood restaurants. Or, if you're feeling energetic, hike up the hill for a fantastic view.

C Read the website again and answer the questions. Then compare with a partner.

1. Where can you do these things, according to the website?
 - a. buy a Turkish rug
 - b. walk around beautiful gardens
 - c. see jewels and works of art
 - d. drink Turkish tea
2. What is a borek?
3. What sights can you see on the boat trip?
4. How did the Blue Mosque get its name?
5. Which three places would you like to see on this tour? Why?
6. Are there any places you would not go to? Why?

A Brainstorm! Do you ever stay in hotels? What's fun about staying in a hotel? Make a class list.

You don't have to cook or make your bed.

You can sit by the pool to relax.

B Read the article as quickly as you can. How much can you remember about each hotel? Compare with a partner.

Reading tip

If you don't understand some words in a description, find other words that will help you get a sense of their meaning. For example, comfortable helps you know that cozy means "nice in some way."

Unique Hotel Experiences

Here are three exciting hotels that you will never forget!

1. Controversy Tram Hotel, The Netherlands It's easy to see why this bed and breakfast is on our list of unusual places to stay. Don't worry – these old city trams are not going to take you anywhere. The owners got old trams from Germany and Holland and converted them into comfortable, cozy rooms with American, Italian, French, and Mexican themes. The owners sleep in an old double-decker bus from England and cook in a French van! It's definitely a place for people who like trains, planes, cars, and other transportation memorabilia.

2. EcoCamp, Chile It's not hard to fall asleep at this environmentally friendly hotel in the heart of the Torres del Paine National Park. The scenery is amazing, as is the peace and quiet. Guests stay in comfortable and inviting domes similar to the homes of ancient native peoples. You should definitely take your hiking boots. In the daytime, guests can trek through the mountains and see guanacos (a type of llama) and other wildlife and then go back to the domes to relax and enjoy a delicious dinner in the evening.

3. Giraffe Manor, Nairobi When we asked the owners of this African hotel, "What should we pack?" they said, "Don't forget to bring a camera." It's good to know. From the elegant rooms of this beautiful manor you have superb views of the Ngong Hills. Not only that, but a herd of giraffes lives on the manor, and you don't have to try hard to get a great photo. The giraffes wander around and poke their heads through the bedroom windows. They even turn up at the breakfast table, too.

C Pair work Read the article again. Discuss the questions about each hotel.

1. What is unusual about each hotel?
2. How does the article describe the rooms?
3. What can you do during the day in each place?
4. Which hotel would you like to stay at? Why?

2 Listening and writing Recommendations

A Look at these hotels. Would you like to visit any of them?

2. Wear flat shoes so you can climb the ladder to your room. _____
3. Be sure to take everything you need. It's miles from another town. _____
4. I really recommend the hot-air balloon ride. _____
5. Don't spend too much time in the water. _____
6. It's a good idea to have some binoculars to watch the dolphins. _____

Reading tip

Ask yourself questions as you read, for example, Is this logical? Is this normal? etc.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL <http://www.personalhomestyle...>. The page title is "Do you have an unusual HOME HABIT?". There are navigation buttons for "view all" and "favorites", and a "Post comment" button. The comments are as follows:

Well, my best friend has a very disorganized kitchen, but you should see mine. As soon as I come back from grocery shopping, I organize everything. First, I arrange the cans so the vegetables are in one section and the canned fruit is in another section. Next, I sort them by size so the big ones are at the back and the small ones are at the front. Then I make sure I can see all the labels.

We have a brand new expensive dishwasher, but I hate it. I don't think it washes very well. My friend says hers is great, but mine always leaves the glasses dirty. So I always wash the dishes by hand before I load them in the dishwasher. Then, after I take them out, I rinse them again to make sure they are clean! It drives my husband crazy!

Lucia_P April 22, 7:55 a.m. read full comment reply
My weird home habit? I iron everything, including my jeans, while I'm watching TV. I even iron my socks. My roommate just stuffs hers in a drawer, but I like to fold everything, too. I even iron the curtains in my bedroom every two weeks. I know it sounds crazy, but you iron yours, too, right?

Manas_No_more_chores April 22, 7:58 a.m. read full comment reply
OK, I can't help it. I save every small plastic take-out container, pizza box, cups from the coffee shop, salad cartons, etc. My friend just throws all his in the trash, but I think that's a waste. You can use them for a lot of different things. Like the big cardboard pizza boxes – we use ours during the summer for picnic trays.

C Read the comments again. Answer the questions.

1. How does Martin arrange the cans in his cupboards?
2. Why does Charlotte wash the dishes before she puts them in the dishwasher?
3. What does Lucia iron?
4. What does Manas do with the containers he saves?

Julia Chen

Definitely! My friend accidentally deleted all my music files when she was using my computer. Actually, she was trying to help me – she was downloading stuff from my phone, and something went wrong. I spent hours on the phone with tech support.

Roberto Moreno

Yeah, kind of. A couple of days ago, a friend and I were trying to look cool in front of some girls at the mall. We weren't looking, and we walked right into a glass door. I was so embarrassed.

1 Getting started

A Look at the illustrations above. What do you think happened to each person? Do these kinds of things ever happen to you? Tell the class.

B 3.23 Listen and read. Were your guesses about the people correct?

Reading tip

As you read a story, pay attention to the time expressions like ten years later, or last month. They help you follow events.

EVERY CLOUD HAS A SILVER LINING ...

GEMMA RUSSO, CALIFORNIA

Sometimes when things go wrong, they just go wrong. But occasionally something really positive comes out of a bad situation. Last month, while I was hiking in a state park, I took a photo of an amazing sunset over a lake. It was so beautiful that I decided to text it to my friend Charley right then and there. Anyway, when I was taking more photos of the lake, I slipped and dropped my cell phone in the water. Disaster! I lost all my photos, and I sprained my ankle. They couldn't fix my phone, either. Well, apparently, Charley secretly sent in my sunset photo to the local TV station. Today, they chose it for "Photo of the Month," and I won a brand new camera! Maybe every cloud does have a silver lining, after all!

ELENA, TEXAS

Ten years ago, my scooter broke down when I was riding to school. I couldn't afford to fix it, so that semester I had to get up at 5:00 a.m. every day to take the bus. One cold, wet morning,

I was feeling really tired and grumpy. But while I was waiting for the bus, this guy started talking to me, and he actually made me laugh! It turned out that he was studying at the same college. We exchanged phone numbers, and the rest is history. Ten years later, we're married with two children. Oh, and a new scooter!

CHIN-HO, DAEGU

A couple of weeks ago, I was helping a friend move his things into my apartment. He was out of work and needed a place to stay. While we were carrying some heavy boxes up the stairs, I hurt my back. It was really bad, so I had to go to the emergency room. Anyway, while I was waiting to see the doctor, I saw an advertisement for a computer technician at the hospital. I called my friend, he got the job, and I got a prescription for painkillers! At least his cloud had a silver lining! Though I do have my apartment all to myself again.

3 Writing Anecdotes

A Think of a time something went wrong. Write 10 to 12 sentences about it. Make sure your sentences are in order.

I was walking to work last week.	The light changed.
It started to rain.	I had to wait for a really long time.
I didn't have an umbrella.	A young man came up to me.
I put a newspaper over my head and ran.	He offered to share his umbrella.
I got to the corner.	He walked with me all the way to work!

About you

B Read the Help note and the anecdote. What events do the words when and while link? Then use your notes from above to write your own anecdote.

Last week, I was walking to work when it started to rain. I didn't have an umbrella, so I put a newspaper over my head and ran. When I got to the corner, the light changed, and I had to wait for a really long time. I was waiting, a young man came up to me and offered to share his umbrella. He walked with me all the way to work! It was so nice of him.

Help note

Linking ideas with when and while.

You can use when or while to link a longer "background" event and another action.

While emphasizes the length of time an action or event takes.

When also shows events that happen one after another.

C Group work Read your classmates' anecdotes. Which ones show "every cloud has a silver lining"?

- B Read the article. What's one advantage of texting? What's one disadvantage?

Reading tip

Read the first and last paragraph of an article to get a general sense of what it is about.

15 Comments

Why all the interest in texting?

An article on the Internet recently caught my eye. It was about the Texting Championships in New York City. The 17-year-old winner texted 149 characters in 39 seconds and won $50,000. That is certainly impressive, and much, much faster than me – LOL :-). However, I started to wonder: Why is there still so much interest in texting? After all, texting is a commonplace activity these days.

It's clear that texting, with all its abbreviations and symbols, is now part of our lives. According to research, about 75% of Americans send text messages, and almost one third prefer to text rather than talk on their phone. It's just quicker to send a text than make a call. Typing SUP is faster than asking "How are you?" and listening to the answer. It's also more discreet because no one can overhear your conversation – and that's FBM.

OTOH, texting has its downsides, too, and perhaps it's these problems that create all the interest. Texters gripe that they are getting more spam texts than ever before. Teachers complain that students' test scores are getting worse because teens spend more time texting than they should. Some also say that texting encourages bad grammar and punctuation and IMO, that's true. Students don't realize they shouldn't write their essays in "textese," and they get low grades as a result. Many young people are sleeping less because they wake up in the night every time a text pops up on their phone. Others have injuries to their hands and thumbs from the constant texting.

There are also more serious problems with texting, however, such as the accidents that happen when people text and drive at the same time. Fortunately, many countries are passing laws that make it illegal to text when you're behind the wheel of a car. In addition, public service advertisements warn of the dangers of texting while driving. Perhaps, then, there is good reason for all the interest in texting.

ICYC*: Textese Today
(*In Case You're Curious)

LOL – Laugh out loud

:-) – Smile

SUP – What's up?

FBM – Fine by me

OTOH – On the other hand

IMO – In my opinion

 2. How many texting abbreviations does the author of the article use? What does each one mean?
 3. What is "textese"? What kinds of problems does it cause?
 4. What are some other downsides of texting? Find four problems in the article.
 5. Do you have any advice for people who text all the time? Write four "Dos" and "Don'ts" for texters.

D Find the expressions below in the article on page 104. What do they mean? Match each one to a definition. Write a to f.

1 Reading

- A What clothes and hairstyles are in fashion right now? When did they become fashionable?
- B Read the blog. Which styles do you know about? Which do you like?

Reading tip

Practice skimming. Read the first sentence of each paragraph to get a general idea of what the article is about.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL <http://www.fashionstatement...>. The browser's address bar and search bar are visible. The page has a navigation menu with links for 'BLOG', 'FASHION TRENDS', 'PICTURES', 'RUNWAY SHOWS', 'SALES', and 'CONTRIBUTE'. The main heading is 'FASHION STATEMENTS' in large, bold, white letters on a blue background. The content is organized into several sections:

- Green Crocs: An image of a pair of green plastic shoes with holes. The text next to it says: "A few days ago, I pointed out my twelve-year-old niece to a friend. 'She's the one wearing braces – the pink ones.' I realized at that moment that braces are now a fashion statement. Can you imagine? But then, did you ever imagine that plastic shoes with holes in them would become so popular all those years ago? Or that you could buy little charms to wear on them?"
- Glasses: An image of three pairs of glasses with different colored frames (brown, black, and red). The text says: "But that's the great thing about fashion. You're never quite sure what's going to become the 'in' thing. Take glasses. Big glasses came and went, and then everyone wanted designer glasses with a logo. Men wore glasses with heavy, black frames for a time. Then colored frames were the 'in' thing, and soon people didn't want frames at all. Glasses, too, became a fashion statement, and people wore them even if they didn't need glasses!"
- Hairstyles: An image of a woman with long, straight blonde hair and bangs. The text says: "Hairstyles are another great way to make a fashion statement. Men with ponytails, shaved heads, cornrows – they've all come and gone and come back into style again. Women's hairstyles are long and straight one minute, and short and curly the next. Bangs are in. Oh wait, no . . . bangs are out."
- Jeans: An image of a man in a dark jacket and blue jeans, and a woman in a light blue shirt and black pants. The text says: "Then of course, there are jeans. Straight-legged are the way to go, until everyone wears them flared. Some guys wear them baggy. Really baggy. Women, on the other hand, seem to prefer 'skinny jeans.' Black jeans are in, and then everyone starts wearing white jeans, or pink jeans, or . . . every other color. One thing is for sure. It's a lot of work keeping up with the latest fashion trends – and expensive! Maybe the best way to make a fashion statement is to do your own thing and not follow fashions at all!"

C Read the blog again. Answer the questions.

1. Why does the writer say that braces are now a “fashion statement”?
2. What shoe style became popular years ago?
3. What five styles of glasses does the writer mention? Do you know anyone who wears any of them?
4. How many hairstyles for men does the writer list? Do you have any friends with these styles?
5. What is the opposite of baggy jeans? straight-legged jeans? Which style do you prefer?
6. What advice does the writer give about keeping up with the latest fashion trends? Do you agree?

2 Listening What’s in style?

A 4.21 Listen to a fashion editor interview four people. What items are they talking about? Write the number of the conversations (1 to 4) next to the items. There is one extra item.

shirts ____ shoes ____ skirts ____ dresses ____ pants ____

B 4.21 Listen again. What specific fashion is each person talking about? How does the person feel about that style? Complete the chart. Do you agree with each person?

Fashion	Does she / he like it? Why or why not?
1. Leslie
2. Emery
3. Kara
4. Franz

3 Speaking and writing Fashion trends

About you

A Group work Ask and answer the questions. Take notes on the different ideas.

1. What clothes are “in” today among your friends?
2. What clothes are going out of style?
3. What styles of shoes are your friends wearing?
4. What do you like about today’s “look”?
5. What don’t you like about it?

B Read the article below and the Help note. Underline the expressions in the article that describe trends.

Casual Clothes Are Now the Rule!

This year, all my co-workers are wearing casual clothes to work. Men are wearing casual slacks and sweaters, and suits and ties are out of style. Leather shoes are “out,” and dressy sneakers are “in.”

It’s also fashionable for women to wear slacks, and fewer women are wearing suits. High heels are going out of style. In general, I like this fashion trend. I feel more comfortable.

Help note

Describing new trends

Short hair is in style.
 Long hair is going out of style.
 High heels are dated / old-fashioned.
 Glasses are becoming popular.
It’s fashionable to wear . . .

Less formal expressions

Short hair is “in” or “out.”
 Glasses are the “in” thing.
 They’re very trendy.

C Write an article describing the current “look.” Use at least four of the expressions in the Help note.

2 Grammar Future with will, may, and might 4.23

Extra practice p. 151

You can use will to give facts or predictions about the future.

I'll be 65 in June.

It'll be expensive to travel around Europe.

The baby will keep us busy!

It won't be easy to find a job.

I'll = I will won't = will not

To show you are not 100% sure about the future, you can use may and might.

I may go on for a master's degree.

I might not be able to afford it.

You can also use will with expressions like I guess, I think, maybe, and probably.

We'll probably take some time off from work.

Maybe we'll move to Arizona.

Avoid will to talk about plans or decisions already made. Use the present continuous or be going to.

I'm going to Europe next year. I'm going to visit Paris. (NOT I will go to Europe next year. I will visit Paris.)

A Circle the correct options in the conversations below. Compare and practice in groups of three.

- A What are you going to do at the end of this course?

B I'm not sure. I guess I take / I'll take another course.

C I don't know. I'm going to / I may travel abroad with my brother. He thinks his classes might / can finish early this year, so we might / will be able to go in May.
- A Are your friends going away for vacation next summer?

B Well, they're all going to do / will all do different things. One friend is going / will go to Istanbul. I'd love to go, too, but I don't know. I won't / I might not be able to afford it.

C Four of my friends will / may be 21, so we're having / have a big party. It's going to be fun.
- A Are you going to look for a new job next year?

B Actually, I just got a new job. I'll / I'm going to work for the local newspaper. How about you?

C I don't know. I think I'm studying / I'll study for a certificate in nutrition. I mean, I'll / I may probably go back to school because I'm pretty sure I won't / I might not get a job.

Common errors

Don't use can for predictions. Use may or might.

I may go away for vacation.

"I think people will use special glasses to get directions."

Reading tip

As you read, look for words like however, which shows a contrasting idea, and so, which sometimes introduces a consequence.

http://www.lifeinthefuture...

WHAT WILL LIFE BE LIKE IN THE FUTURE?

Our analyst says that some weird and wonderful ideas of the future might not be that far away.

1 Smartphones, tablets, and laptops are getting thinner and lighter than ever before. However, in the future, you might not need to carry any gadgets around with you. If designers have their way, you may just need to wear a pair of "virtual goggles" instead. Scientists are testing prototypes at the moment, though it may be some time before they're actually on store shelves. These goggles will act like a computer screen and display information and entertainment from the Internet. So, when you are sightseeing, you'll be able to see information about a famous building in front of you. Or you'll be able to get a review of the restaurant menu you're looking at. The goggles will have GPS, so you'll be able to stream directions to a party or locate a nearby coffee shop. They will also have a camera to take photos, and you won't need a cell phone anymore. The goggles will have that built in, too.

2 You might not be able to take a trip into space right now, but in the near future, we may all have access to the outer atmosphere. Private spaceships are taking reservations – at a cost – for flights into space. In the meantime, a Japanese company says it is developing a space elevator. The elevator, which will carry 30 passengers, will stretch from a base on the ground up to a space station 36,000 kilometers (22,000 miles) above the earth. It will take eight days to reach the space station. Luckily, the elevator will have beds and entertainment on board. The company says it may be ready by 2050.

3 You can already buy mirrors with TVs in them, so you can watch the morning news while you brush your teeth. However, in the future, mirrors will be able to do much, much more. What would you look like with long blond hair? Or with a beard? In the future, you will be able to simply tap your mirror if you want to see yourself with different features. Your mirror will also monitor your health, and it'll be able to tell you when you need a visit to the doctor's office. And before you go to work, you'll be able to set the time for a nice, relaxing bath. Now how hot do you want the water?

C Read the article again. Check (✓) the predictions the article makes.

1. With “virtual goggles” you’ll be able to go online.
2. These goggles will make it unnecessary for tourists to go sightseeing.
3. Virtual goggles will have built-in cell phones.
4. Only trained astronauts will be able to travel on the space elevator.
5. The space elevator will carry people 22,000 miles above the earth.
6. The space elevator will probably be ready in the next ten years.
7. A “smart mirror” will show us what we look like with different hair or features.
8. With smart mirrors to monitor health, we won’t need to go to the doctor.

About you

D Pair work If the predictions are correct, will our lives be better or worse? Discuss with a partner.

A Our lives will be worse with virtual goggles. We’ll stop looking at things around us.

B I don’t really agree. People won’t wear the goggles all the time. Just when they need them.

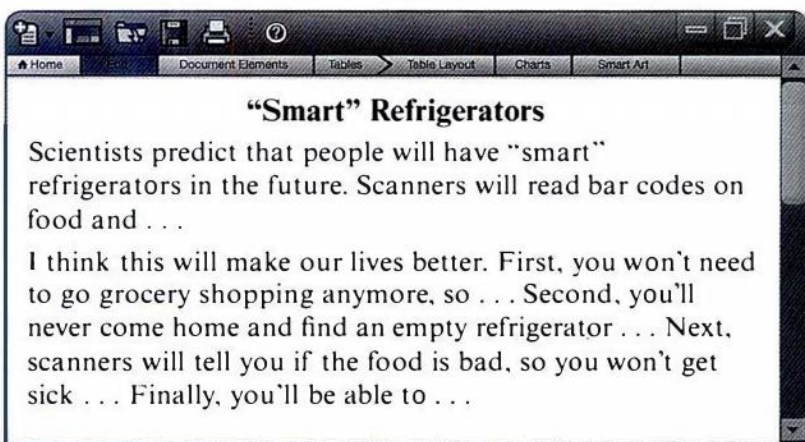

2 Listening and writing A good idea?

- A  4.30 Listen to Sophia and Alan discuss the inventions from the article on page 124. For each invention, who says it’s a good idea? Check (✓) Sophia or Alan.

- B  4.30 Listen again. Write one reason why Sophia or Alan thinks the invention is a good idea. Do you agree? Discuss with a partner.

“Smart” Refrigerators

Scientists predict that people will have “smart” refrigerators in the future. Scanners will read bar codes on food and . . .

I think this will make our lives better. First, you won’t need to go grocery shopping anymore, so . . . Second, you’ll never come home and find an empty refrigerator . . . Next, scanners will tell you if the food is bad, so you won’t get sick . . . Finally, you’ll be able to . . .
