To the Student

Welcome to Person to Person. Let's take a look at the sections of the units.

- Conversations The two conversations present examples of the language you will be studying. You can listen to them on the CD in class or at home.
- Give It a Try This section teaches the language points from the conversations. You will focus on each one separately and then practice them with a partner.
- Listen to This The listening section gives you real-life listening tasks that help you review your understanding of the language from the unit. You answer questions or complete charts about the listening.
- Let's Talk These are pair- or group-work activities that ask you to expand on what you have learned. You can use both the language you have learned and your imagination.
- Consider This "Consider This" presents some interesting facts on a cultural topic related to the theme of the unit. You can use these facts as an introduction to the unit.
- Pronunciation Focus A pronunciation point related to the language from the unit comes after Conversation 2. This helps you to practice the language in the unit in a more natural way.
- Person to Person These pages present a problem based on the language from the unit. You and a partner will work together to solve the problem, using the language you have learned, as well as your own ideas and opinions.

In addition to the language presented in each unit, here are some expressions that will be very useful to you—both inside and outside of class.

1. Please say that again.
2. I'm sorry. I don't understand.
3. Please speak more slowly.
4. How do you say _____ in English?
5. What does _____ mean?
6. I don't know.
7. May I ask a question?
8. How do you spell _____?

I hope you find that learning to speak and understand English is easier than you think. Good luck!

Conversation 1

Let's get started!

What are some common men's names in English? What are some common women's names?

CONSIDER THIS

"My name is ..."

Mariana Arrieta Colindres
Barandiarán Berruguete
Torrelles Dopereiro
Castañeda González de
Ayala. Please call me Mari."
Spanish names can include
up to eight family names.
They come from both of your parents, your grandparents, and so on.

- How many names do you have?
- Where do they come from?

Class CD 1, Track 2

- Bob: Good afternoon.
Eun-mi: Good afternoon.
Bob: I'm your instructor today. My name's Robert Simpson. But please call me Bob.
Eun-mi: Hi, Bob.
Bob: And what's your name?
Eun-mi: I'm Eun-mi.
Bob: Great. And how are you today?
Eun-mi: Fine, thanks.
Bob: Terrific! So let's get started. Are you ready?
Eun-mi: Yeah, let's go!

Student CD, Track 2

GIVE IT A TRY

1. Introducing yourself

What's your name?	My name's Robert. But please call me Bob. I'm Robert.
What's your first name? last name?	My first name is Robert. My last name is Simpson.

PRACTICE 1

Class CD 1
Track 3

Listen to the example. Introduce yourself to your partner. Reverse roles.

PRACTICE 2

Class CD 1
Track 4

Listen to the example. Work in groups. Say your name. Switch roles.

2. Greeting people

Informally
Hi, Bob.	Hi, Eun-mi.
How are you today? How are things?	Fine, thanks. Pretty good, thanks. Good, thanks. Terrific! Great.
	How are you?

More formally
Hello.	Hello, Mr. Stevens.
Good morning.	Good morning, (ma'am).
Good afternoon.	Good afternoon.
Good evening.	Good evening, (sir).

PRACTICE 1

Class CD 1
Track 5

Listen to the examples. Then practice greeting your partner informally. Reverse roles.

PRACTICE 2

Write your first name on a card (for example, Jin-a). On the back of the card write your last name with Mr., Ms., Mrs., or Miss (for example, Ms. Lee).

Work in groups. Show your partners the back of your card. Practice greeting people formally. Then go around the group again. This time, hold up the front of your card. Practice greeting people informally.

3. Saying good-bye

Informally		More formally
Bye-bye.	Bye.	Good-bye.	Good-bye.
See you later.	See you.
Have a nice day.	You too.

PRACTICE

Class CD 1
Track 6

Listen to the examples. Then practice saying good-bye to your partner. Reverse roles.

LISTEN TO THIS

Class CD 1
Track 7

Part 1 Listen to four conversations. Are the people friends, or are they meeting for the first time? Check (✓) the correct column.

Part 2 Listen again and check (✓) how each conversation ends.

	First time	Friends	How did it end?
1			___ Have a nice day.	___ Have a nice evening.
2			___ Good-bye	___ Bye-bye.
3			___ See you again.	___ See you tomorrow.
4			___ See you later.	___ See you soon.

Part 3 In which conversation did the people know each other the best? The least? Explain your answer to a partner.

LET'S TALK

Part 1 Look at the chart below. Answer the questions, and write your information in the chart.

	You	1	2	3
1	Do you know the teacher's first name?
2	Do you know the teacher's last name?
3	Do you have a common first name?
4	Do you and a classmate have the same first name?
5	Do you and a classmate have the same last name?

Part 2 Work in groups. Introduce yourself and then ask the questions above. Fill in the chart for each person in your group.

A: Do you know the teacher's first name?

B: No, I don't. / Yes, it's... Do you know the teacher's last name?

C: No, I don't. / Yes, it's... Do you have a common first name?

A: No, I don't. / Yes, it's... Do you...

Conversation 2

Do you want to meet him?

Eun-mi: That's Tony.
Nishi: Who's he?
Eun-mi: Oh, he's in my aerobics class.
Nishi: He's really cute.
Eun-mi: Yeah. Do you want to meet him?
Nishi: You bet I do!
Eun-mi: Tony, this is my friend Nishi.
Tony: Hi, Nishi. Nice to meet you.
Nishi: Hello. Nice to meet you, too.

Student CD, Track 3

Class CD 1, Track 9

Pronunciation Focus

Listen to the word to in these sentences.

Do you want to meet him?
Nice to meet you.

Listen to the conversation again and notice the pronunciation of to.

GIVE IT A TRY

Unit 2

Conversation 1

Are these your keys?

Do you have a cell phone?
Do you like using it?

CONSIDER THIS

How heavy is your bag?

Experts say your bag should not weigh more than 10 percent of your body weight. So, if you weigh 50 kg, your bag should weigh only 5 kg. Why? If your bag is too heavy, you may hurt your back.

- What do you have in your bag?
- Name three things you never leave home without.

Class CD 1, Track 13

Emily: What's that?
Akemi: It's my new cell phone.
Emily: Wow! It's really small.
Akemi: Yeah. And listen.
Emily: That's neat. And I like your sunglasses.
They're cool.
Akemi: Thanks.
Emily: By the way, are these your keys?
Akemi: Oh, yes. They are mine. Thanks. Sorry,
I leave my things everywhere!
Emily: I know. Here's your notebook.

Unit 9

Conversation 1

You are really creative.

What hobbies do you enjoy? Do you collect anything?

CONSIDER THIS

Creative careers

At New Zealand's National Institute of Creative Arts and Industries you can study:

Painting      Photography
Dance          Music

- Would you like to study any of these?
- Do you do any of these as hobbies?

Class CD 2, Track 22

- Aya: Congratulations, Julia. You are a really good photographer.
- Julia: Thanks.
- Aya: So how do you take a good photograph?
- Julia: Well, you need to be patient. It takes time to get a good picture. You need good light and a good subject.
- Aya: And I guess you need to be creative. Your photos are always very original.
- Julia: Well, I try to be different.
- Aya: I never seem to take good photos. I don't think I'm very artistic. And I'm not very patient.
- Julia: Well, it's easy to learn. Do you want me to give you some lessons?
- Aya: Yeah. That would be great.

Student CD, Track 18

Unit 10

Conversation 1

Let's have coffee.

Do you like to visit coffee shops? What do you like to drink?

CONSIDER THIS

Coffee

It's the world's most popular drink. Every day, people drink about 2,000,000,000 cups! Men drink about 1.7 cups a day. Women drink about 1.5 cups. The US drinks more coffee than any other country—over 1,000,000 kg of coffee beans each year.

- Do you like coffee?
- What's your favorite drink?

Class CD 2, Track 35

Arun: I'd love some coffee. Is there a coffee shop around here?

Beth: Yeah, there's one just around the corner.

Arun: Really? Whereabouts?

Beth: It's next to the bookstore. It's called Dove.

Arun: Oh, yeah. Do you feel like having a cup of coffee?

Beth: Sure. And after that I'd like to have a look at that new music store.

Arun: Where's that?

Beth: It's on Forbes Street, near the subway entrance.

Arun: OK. Sounds good.

 M: And I have one sister, Su-Jun. She's younger than me. She's 15. She's very good at music and plays the piano and the violin.
 F: How nice! And what about your dad? What does he do?

- M: He's a dentist. He's 44 and he studied in Canada.
 F: Really? And do you have any brothers?
 M: Yes, I have one older brother and one younger one. My older brother is 20, and my younger brother is 11. They're both crazy about soccer.
 F: And what about you? Are you too?
 M: No, not really.

- R: Who's that over there, Paul?
 P: Her name's Taylor.
 R: She's pretty.
 P: Yes, she is. She's my dance teacher.
 R: Oh, are you taking dance lessons, Paul?
 P: Yes, I am. Taylor's a very good dancer.
 R: Really? Is Taylor her last name?
 P: No, it's her first name. Her last name's Johnson.
 R: Nice name. Taylor Johnson.
 P: Yes, it is. Do you want to meet her?
 R: Sure!
 P: OK. [pause] Oh, Taylor, this is my friend Robert.
 T: Hello, Robert. Nice to meet you.
 R: Hi. Nice to meet you, too.

- A: Oh, no! I broke my glasses, and I can't see a thing without them.
 B: What are you looking for?
 A: Well, where's my bag? I thought I put it on the table last night.
 B: It's right there—in front of the table.
 A: OK. And it looks like it's going to rain. I'll need my umbrella when I go out. I usually put it under the table.
 B: No, it's not under the table. Look there, behind the table on the left. Do you see it?
 A: Oh, right. Thanks. And where did I put my notebook?
 B: Umm... I saw it somewhere a few minutes ago.
 A: Is it on the table?
 B: No. Let me look in the drawer. Yes, it's in here. And are you looking for your watch, too?
 A: Yes, I thought it was in the drawer, too.
 B: No, it isn't. It's on the table near the back.
 A: Oh, yeah. And I wonder where I put my cell phone.
 B: There it is. Under the table.
 A: How did it get there? Oh, and one more thing. Where's today's paper?
 B: There it is, on the floor next to the table.

- M-J: What do you like to do in your free time, Rod?
R: Well, Min-ju, I'm into music, so I play guitar. I really love rock music. Do you like rock music?
M-J: Not really. I'm more interested in classical music. I play the piano and listen to a lot of piano music.
R: Are you interested in sports?
M-J: Not so much. But I love reading. I really like detective stories.
R: Oh, cool. How about you, Tina? Do you like music?
T: No, not really. I'm more into sports.
R: What kind of sports are you interested in?
T: I love tennis and basketball. And I also enjoy traveling. How about you, James? What are you interested in?
J: Actually, I really like traveling. I want to be a tour guide some day.
T: Really? Where do you like to travel?
J: Oh, everywhere, but I'm really interested in Asia—especially Thailand and Singapore.
T: OK. What else are you interested in? Do you like music?
J: Yes, I do. Especially rock.
M-J: So that leaves you, Kazu. What do you like to do in your free time?
K: Hmm. I guess traveling is something I love. I also like all kinds of sports. Especially surfing and swimming.

J: Hmm. I like it a lot. It's very small, isn't it? And it's very light, too.
D: The screen is really sharp.
J: I'd love to get one. But how much is it?
D: It's $350.00.
J: Oh, that's too much for me. Let's try to find a cheaper one.
- 2
D: Hey, look at these shoes. What do you think of them?
J: I don't really like them. I don't like the design.
D: Yeah. They don't really look very nice. And look at the price—$199.00—way too expensive!
J: Yeah.
- 3
J: Are you looking for a new watch? Take a look at this one. What do you think?
D: It's not bad.
J: Yeah, it looks OK. But the price is really good. It's only $20.00.
D: That's cheap. I think I'll get it. I really need a new one.
- 4
J: Why don't you try on these sunglasses? I think they're really cool.
D: Let me see. Yeah...very cool!
J: And they're on sale. They're only $29.95.
D: That's not bad. I'll buy them. They'll be great for the beach.

I: So you're a hair stylist, Chris?
C: That's right.
I: What's your job like?
C: It's great. I meet all kinds of interesting people. Last week an actor from that new TV soap opera came in for a cut.
I: Is that right? And do you work long hours?
C: Lots of my clients are working people and they like to come in after work. So I start at 2:00 in the afternoon and finish at 10:00 at night.
- 2
I: So, Kayla, what does a dog walker do exactly?
K: I walk dogs, of course! I go to people's apartments, pick up their dogs, and take them for a walk. I walk six dogs at a time and walk them for two or three hours. Then I take them back and pick up another group of dogs and take them for a walk, too. Usually I start around 9:00 A.M. and finish at 4:00 in the afternoon.
I: And how do you like it?
K: I love it. I love dogs, and I love working outdoors so it's perfect for me.
- 3
I: Where are you working at the moment, Tim?
T: I'm working at the ticket office at the Verona Cinema.
I: Oh, yeah?
T: But I want to change jobs. The work is boring, the hours are really long, and the money isn't good.
I: What hours do you work?
T: I start at 10:30 A.M. We show the first movie of the day at 11:00. Then we often have late movies, and I have to be there until pretty late—usually until midnight.
I: Wow! That's a long day. No wonder you're looking for a new job.
- 4
I: What do you do, Celia?
C: I teach ballet.
I: That's interesting.
C: Yeah, I have my own studio. I don't dance professionally much anymore, so it's nice to be teaching ballet. I love it, and I have some great students.
I: Do you teach every day?
C: Not on Sunday, but I teach every other day. Most of my students come after school so I start at 3:00 in the afternoon. My last class is at 8:00 P.M. and I finish at 10:00. I'm really tired at the end of the day.
I: Yeah, I'm sure you are.

H: Are you busy this week, Paul? When can we get together to see a movie or something?
 P: Let me check. OK. So I'm going ice-skating with Kelly on Monday at 4:00 P.M. I guess we'll be there until dinnertime and then go off together. So Monday's not good. On Tuesday I have a guitar lesson at 5:00 P.M. It only lasts an hour so I'm free after that.
 H: Tuesday's not good for me. I have a Spanish class that starts at 6:00.
 P: Thursday I need to make an appointment to see the doctor. And Suzie's birthday party is on Friday night at 8:00 so Friday's not good for me.
 H: How about Saturday?
 P: Hmm...I'm not sure about Saturday. I want to see the dentist, and I want to make an appointment some time on Saturday morning. And Saturday afternoon I'm meeting Terry and Pat for coffee at 2:30.
 H: OK. So it looks like Wednesday night is good for you?
 P: Sure. Wednesday looks good.

 M: I'm a freshman at City University.
 I: Uh-huh. I hear it's a very good university.
 M: Yes, it is. I'm really happy there.
 I: Are you studying fine arts?
 M: No, I am studying IT.
 I: I see. And how do you like your classes?
 M: They're OK. Some are kind of difficult, but the professors are really good.

2

I: Where are you studying, Rosie?
 R: I'm still at the local junior college. It's really boring. But I'm hoping to go to the university next semester.
 I: What are you studying?
 R: I'm doing a general liberal arts course.
 I: Do you have a major?
 R: Yes, I'm studying American literature. But it's not very interesting. I haven't learned anything new all year.

3

I: What are you studying, Liz?
 L: I'm majoring in music.
 I: Great. That must be very interesting.
 L: Yes, it is. I love it. And I have great teachers. Some of them are pretty famous musicians.
 I: Wonderful. And where are you studying?
 L: I'm at the national university. I love it!

 W: Do you like the dormitory?
 C: Yes. My roommate is from Brazil.
 W: Oh, yeah. What's he like?
 C: Well, he's really friendly. He's always meeting new people. And he has a great sense of humor. He always makes me laugh.
 W: That's nice.
 C: Yeah. He's a very good student and studies very hard. And he's kind of interesting, too. He likes insects and is always coming back with some strange insect he found somewhere. And he has two big black spiders as pets. He keeps them in a big jar next to his bed.

W: That sounds a little creepy.
 C: Oh, I don't mind. I wish he would keep his part of the room a little cleaner though. He leaves things on the floor all the time.
 W: Is that right?
 C: And he's pretty forgetful, too. Sometimes he says he wants to meet me for lunch in the cafeteria but half the time he forgets and never shows up.
 W: Oh, dear. That's too bad.

 D: That would be great. But I have a pretty busy week. How about you?
 A: Me too. But let's see if we can find a day when we're both free.
 D: Well, I can't do it tonight. I have a math class until 9:00 P.M. on Mondays.
 A: Yuck. Anyway, I'm not free tonight either.
 D: That's too bad. Now let's see. How does Tuesday look for you? It's OK for me.
 A: Let me think. Oh, I can't do Tuesday. I have a driving lesson. And Wednesday night, my sister and I always go to the gym.
 D: Wednesday's not good for me either because I have a basketball game.
 A: Hey, this is getting difficult. What else have I got on this week? Oh, yes. I have a meeting I have to go to on Friday. The weekend I am not free at all because I promised to meet friends on both Saturday and Sunday.
 D: So where does that leave us? I don't have anything else planned for this week.

Review Unit 6

LISTEN TO THIS PAGE 53

- A: I think for a roommate, you want someone who is really considerate—someone who doesn't only think about themselves. They think about the other person, you know, so they don't have the TV on when the other person is sleeping, that kind of thing.
- B: Right. And I like someone who keeps the place clean—they don't leave their clothes all over the room and stuff like that.
- A: And it's also good if they know how to do things, like cooking, and fixing things that go wrong, or even if they know how to change a lightbulb.
- B: Yes. It's great if a roommate is practical like that. How about good qualities for a travel companion?
- A: Well, a travel companion should be practical, too. And you want someone to keep you company. They should be friendly and talkative.
- B: Right. And someone who likes meeting people and who is outgoing. Because it's nice to get to meet people when you're traveling. Otherwise, what's the point of leaving home?
- A: And if you're going to spend a lot of time together, you want someone who is easy to get along with. They don't lose their temper or get stressed out.
- B: Right. They should be relaxed and friendly.

Unit 7

1. Talking about routines (1)

PRACTICE 1

- A: What do you usually do on Saturday morning?
- B: I usually surf the web and sometimes I play sports. What about you?
- A: Saturday morning? I always sleep in!

PRACTICE 2

- A: What do you usually do in the morning?
- B: I usually get up early in the morning.
- A: What about in the afternoon?
- B: I often play soccer in the afternoon.

2. Talking about routines (2)

- A: Do you ever play sports on the weekend?
- B: Yes, I sometimes play tennis. Do you ever play sports on the weekend?
- A: No, not very often.

- I: Wow. You're a model! That must be exciting!
- A: It's a lot of fun. I love it. But sometimes it's very tiring.

- I: Tiring? Why is that?
- A: Well, I often have all-day shoots on Saturdays, and have to get up very early. I usually get up around 5:00 A.M., and then a car from the studio comes to pick me up at 6:00 and take me to the location.
- I: Does it take a long time to shoot the photos?
- A: Sometimes. The other models and I often have to change clothes ten or more times. And it takes about an hour to take all the photos with each set of clothes. So I often spend 10 or 12 hours on a photo shoot.
- I: I see.
- A: So I get home pretty late, and when I do, I'm really tired and hungry.
- I: I bet! And what about the clothes you model? Do you get to keep them?
- A: Unfortunately not! But the work pays really well. I sometimes make five or six hundred dollars for one day.
- I: That's pretty good. And do you work on Sundays, too?
- A: Not usually. But on Sundays I spend about four hours in the gym working out to keep in shape.
- I: So I guess you don't have time to see a movie next weekend?
- A: No, I'm sorry. But thanks for asking.

- T: Yeah, I heard it was fabulous. I saw a great movie though.
- S: Oh, me too. What did you see?
- T: I saw that new Tom Cruise movie. It's really good.
- S: Oh, good. I'm going to see it this weekend. I saw a Korean movie on Friday night. It was pretty good. Then after the movie I went to a club with some friends.

- T: Oh, yeah? And did you go to Janet's party on Saturday night?
- S: I wanted to, but I decided to study for my economics test.
- T: You are such a good student! I didn't go to the party either because it was my dad's birthday. We went out for a family dinner. Sunday was fun though because I played a great game of soccer.
- S: I didn't know you played soccer!
- T: Yeah, I do. It's fun. Did you get to play sports at all over the weekend?
- S: I wanted to, but I had a lot of things to do around the house.
- T: Too bad. I hate housework.
- S: Yeah, so do I.

- R: Hi, Aran. Hey, I'm really hungry. I'm going to have a big breakfast today.
- A: Me too, Robert.
- R: What do people usually have for breakfast in Thailand, Aran?
- A: Well we don't really have a special meal for breakfast, like you do in many countries. We usually just have something that we cooked the night before for supper, you know, so there will always be rice of course, and usually some vegetable dish, and then maybe a curry dish, like curried chicken or beef. And tea or coffee to drink.
- R: Mmm. Sounds delicious.
- A: Yeah, but I usually just have a western breakfast—you know toast, coffee, and some fruit. How about in the UK?
- R: Well a typical English breakfast—that's difficult—it depends on what part of the country you live in, but I guess I can say people will have fried eggs, sausages, bacon, fried mushrooms, and tomatoes—everything fried so it's rather heavy. And tea with toast.
- A: So is that what you have?
- R: No. I have two boiled eggs, cereal, and juice.
- A: Very healthy!

 A: Really? Does she have her own dance school?
 C: No, but she teaches for the biggest school in our town.

- A: She must be a very good dancer.
 C: Yes, she is. She's also a good singer. She sings in a band when she has free time. And she also has a part-time job teaching German and Russian.
 A: That's amazing. She sounds very talented—and busy!
 C: Yes, she is always running around doing things. She never stops.
 A: Really? And how about your brother?
 C: He's a junior at the State University. He's very smart. He's studying engineering.
 A: Has he always been a good student?
 C: Yeah. He's very good at math and computer science. He loves studying. He's never been interested in sports. Once he starts reading a book, he won't put it down. Sometimes it drives my parents crazy, because when he's studying or reading, he forgets everything else. Sometimes he doesn't even remember to eat lunch!

 S: Well, I love reading. And there are some great books in this library.
 M: Yes, there are. I see you have some books in Spanish. Your Spanish must be pretty good.
 S: It is, I guess. I can speak and read it fluently.
 M: Wow. And do you know any other languages?
 S: Well, French, but my French isn't very good. How about you?
 M: I speak a little German and I'm studying Korean this year.
 S: Interesting.
 M: Yeah, but I'm just a beginner in both languages.
 S: And I see you're borrowing some music CDs.
 M: Yeah. I play guitar, and I want to listen to some good guitar music. I teach guitar as well.
 S: Really? Are you good at any other instruments?
 M: Not really. Just guitar. How about you?
 S: I play piano pretty well and I'm learning violin this year. It's fun but I'm finding it really difficult.
 M: What other plans do you have for the weekend?

- S: Well, I'm going to play some tennis. I'm playing in a tournament on Sunday.
 M: Is that right? Is your tennis good?
 S: I guess so. Do you play tennis?
 M: I do, but not very well. My best sport is baseball. Do you play any other sports?
 S: Not really.

 K: It was fantastic. Very comfortable and very good service.
 A: That's good. And was the weather good?
 K: Not all of the time. It rained a few days, so it was a bit disappointing. But there were some nice days as well.
 A: And did you have a good flight back?
 K: Oh, it was horrible! The plane was full and the food was terrible.

 S: I'm not sure. Any suggestions?
 J: What do you feel like? Are you hungry?
 S: Yes, I'm pretty hungry.
 J: Well, Jenny's Kitchen has sandwiches and hot dogs.
 S: What's their food like?
 J: It's pretty cheap. I guess it's average. It's not the best place around here actually.
 S: Hmm. Any place better you know?
 J: Well, would you like to have noodles? Bob's Cafe has noodles and they also serve sushi. I was there last week and their food is terrific.
 S: Umm, I don't really feel like noodles or sushi.
 J: Boy, you are hard to please. Oh, I know another place. Do you know The Snack Shack?
 S: No. What do they have there?
 J: They have great pizza!
 S: Pizza sounds good to me.
 J: OK. Let's go there.

Review Unit 9*LISTEN TO THIS PAGE 79

- C: Well, I've met two possible roommates, and now I have to decide who I like better.
 T: Well, Cassy, let's start with you first. What are you like? That will help you to figure out who you'll get along with better.
 C: Well, I think I'm easy to get along with. Don't you?

- T: Well, yes, you're easygoing most of the time. You're also very reliable—always there when somebody needs you. And you're very neat and well-organized.
- C: That's true. I don't like being with people who are sloppy or lazy.
- T: OK. So who was the first person you met?
- C: Her name is Kavita. She's very neat. Her room in the dormitory is always clean and organized.
- T: Right. She's very energetic too, isn't she? She always seems to be working. She never takes any time off. Do you think she's too serious?
- C: Well, maybe. But at least I know she's not lazy. And she's very reliable. That's important to me.
- T: Now who was the other person? Soon-Ya?
- C: That's right. He's very funny. I love his sense of humor.
- T: Yeah. He's really creative, too. He's a talented musician, and a good artist as well.
- C: You're right. But I don't think he's very neat. His room is always a mess. And he's not so reliable at times. He often forgets appointments.
- T: So who do you think your new roommate is going to be?

Unit 10

GIVE IT A TRY PAGE 81

1. Asking about places

- A: Is there a supermarket around here?
- B: Yes, there is. It's on the corner of Oak Avenue and Seventh Street.

2. Describing outdoor locations

- A: Where's the coffee shop?
- B: It's on the corner of Pine Street and 5th Avenue.

LISTEN TO THIS PAGE 83

- A: Excuse me. I'm new in town. Can you tell me a little about the neighborhood?
- B: Sure. What do you want to know?
- A: Well, first of all, I'm looking for a bookstore. Is there one around here?
- B: Hmm. Well the nearest one is on Forest Drive, across from the bank.
- A: Forest Drive?
- B: Yeah. The bookstore is between 2nd and 3rd. But it's not very good I'm afraid.
- A: OK. I'll look anyway. And how about places to eat? Can you recommend a good Indian restaurant?
- B: There's one on the corner of 2nd and Pine Street—the Taj Mahal. I go there all the time. It's across from the subway entrance.
- A: On the corner of Second and Pine? OK. Got that. What about if I just want coffee?

- B: You could try the coffee shop on Grove Street, across from the park. It's across from the gym I go to. It has great coffee and cakes, and the prices are very good.
- A: So, the coffee shop is on Fourth and Grove—across from the gym?
- B: That's right.
- A: How about a hairdresser? I need to get my hair cut.
- B: Try the one on the corner of Grove and 2nd. It's OK.
- A: Great. And how about a Chinese restaurant?
- B: There's a great one on Fourth, next to the gym. But it's very small and it's always crowded.

GIVE IT A TRY PAGE 85

1. Giving directions

PRACTICE 1

- A: Excuse me. Is there a drugstore around here?
- B: Yes, there is. Go up Pine Street to the intersection. Turn left at the corner. It's on Main Street, across from the post office.
- A: Thank you.
- B: No problem.

PRACTICE 2

- A: How do I get to the bus stop?
- B: OK. Go along Pine Street to the corner of Oak. Turn right onto Oak and walk two blocks. You can't miss it.

LISTEN TO THIS PAGE 86

- A: You look lost. Can I help you?
- B: Well, yes, I'm new in town, and I'm looking for somewhere to eat. Where is the nearest cafe?
- A: Let me see. OK. So we're on Union. Just walk up Webb Street until you come to Naples Street. Then take a right. There's a cafe on your left. It's really nice. I often have lunch there.
- B: Great. And what about a drugstore?
- A: Oh, that's easy. Turn left and go down Union until you come to Pine. Then turn right and go up Pine for two blocks. There's a drugstore on the right, on the corner of Green and Pine. I've been there a few times. Their prices are good.
- B: OK. And how about a music store? I want to look at CDs and DVDs.
- A: Sure. You need to go up Webb Street for about three blocks and take a right at Naples. Go down Naples for a couple of blocks and there's a music store on your right. I hear it's good, but I've never been there.
- B: Fantastic. Just one more thing. I hope you don't mind?
- A: Not at all.
- B: Thanks. These shoes are killing me. How can I get to a good shoe store?

- A: Easy. Go down Union for two blocks and then turn right on Pine and go another block or so. There's a shoe store on the corner of Virginia and Pine. I bought these shoes there and they're very comfortable.
- A: Thanks so much. And there is just one more question. I want to go to a good club tonight.
- B: Hmm. I think there's one near here, but I've never been to it. Yes. Go up Webb for two blocks and turn right on Green. There's a club on your right, on the corner of Scott and Green.
- A: Great. Thanks a lot!

Unit 11

GIVE IT A TRY PAGE 89

1. Asking to borrow things

PRACTICE 1

- A: Can I borrow your digital camera?
- B: Sure. No problem. Can you lend me your dictionary?
- A: All right.

PRACTICE 2

- A: Do you think I could borrow your book?
- B: Yes, of course.

2. Declining requests and giving a reason

PRACTICE 1

- A: Can I borrow your pen?
- B: Sorry, but I'm using it.

PRACTICE 2

- A: Do you think I could borrow your laptop?
- B: Sorry, I need it myself.

LISTEN TO THIS PAGE 91

- 1
- A: Oh, that looks nice. Is it new?
- B: Yes, it is. It's the latest model.
- A: It has a nice big screen.
- B: Yes, it does. But it's very light. It only weighs 3 kilos.
- A: Wow. You know, I'm working on an assignment and I wonder if I could borrow it just for tonight?
- B: Umm, actually I will be using it tonight. I have to finish my assignment as well.
- 2
- A: What are you listening to? Music?
- B: Actually I'm listening to a Chinese lesson. I'm taking Chinese this semester and we have a test coming up.
- A: Oh, I see. Then I suppose you won't be able to lend it to me for the weekend? I'm going away for the weekend and I want to be able to listen to some music on the train.
- B: Well, maybe some other time.

- 3
 A: This one is nice. It's very light.
 B: Yeah, I love using it. I play much better with it, and I can hit the ball much harder.
 A: I'd love to try it some time. Do you think I could borrow it on Saturday afternoon?
 I'm playing with my cousin.
 B: Sure, no problem.

- 4
 A: That looks nice. Is it easy to use?
 B: Very easy. And it takes great pictures. You can download them and put them onto your laptop as well.
 A: I see. I'm thinking of buying one. Can I borrow yours for a few days to see how easy it is to use?
 B: Well, actually I'm using it for the next few days.
 A: Oh, OK. No problem.

- 5
 A: Do you use this often?
 B: Yes, when the weather is good I ride to school on it.
 A: How about on the weekend? Do you use it much then?
 B: Not really.
 A: Well, do you think I could borrow it on Saturday afternoon?
 B: Sure. Just come by and pick it up after lunch.

- 6
 A: I haven't read that. Is it good?
 B: Yes, it's terrific.
 A: Can I borrow it when you're finished with it?
 B: Sure. I'm nearly finished with it. I'll let you have it tomorrow.
 A: Thanks a lot.

GIVE IT A TRY PAGE 93

1. Asking for and giving permission

- A: Is it OK if I invite my friends over next week?
 B: Sure. No problem.

2. Declining permission and giving a reason

- A: Do you mind if I watch TV?
 B: Well, maybe later if you don't mind.

LISTEN TO THIS PAGE 94

- 1
 A: I thought I would listen to the sports. Can I turn it on? Is that OK with you?
 B: Umm, you know, I've got a bit of a headache and I'm trying to rest. Would you mind listening to it later?
 A: Not at all. Can I get you something for your headache—maybe some aspirin and some tea with lemon?
 B: That would be nice, thanks.

- 2
 A: I really feel like a cup of coffee. Can I use the coffeemaker?
 B: Do you know how to use it?
 A: I think so.
 B: All right. Actually I think I'll have one, too.
 A: Do you like it with milk and sugar?
 B: Yes, thank you.

- 3
 A: Oh gosh, I forgot to call home. I said I would call about now. Is that OK with you?
 B: Of course. You can make your call from the phone in the kitchen. It's nice and quiet there.
 A: Thanks so much.

- 4
 A: Do you mind if I watch the news? I want to find out what's happening at home and I haven't had a chance to read the newspaper today.
 B: Not at all. I'll just turn off the radio.
 A: Thanks. I only want to catch the headlines.

- 5
 A: I need to get some clothes ready for the weekend. Is it OK if I use the iron for a while?
 B: Yes, it's in kitchen. Look in the cupboard on the left.
 A: OK. I see it. Thanks.

Unit 12

GIVE IT A TRY PAGE 97

1. Talking about past experiences (1)

- A: Did you have a good year?
 B: It was pretty good, thanks.
 A: Did you do anything interesting?
 B: Yes, I took a judo class. Did you do anything interesting?
 A: No, not really.

2. Talking about past experiences (2)

- A: Did you do anything special?
 B: Yes. I got a new job. And you? What was your best experience?
 A: My trip to the US—I went to San Francisco for a week.
 B: Oh, that sounds great!

LISTEN TO THIS PAGE 99

- 1
 A: Did you have a good year, Taylor?
 B: Very good, thanks. Look at this.
 A: An engagement ring. Fantastic! I didn't know you were engaged.
 B: Yes, I got engaged last month. I met my fiancé when I was on vacation last summer. We're planning to get married next year.
 A: Congratulations! That's wonderful news.

- 2
 A: How was school this year, Pei-ling?
 B: Oh, so-so.
 A: Only so-so? How come?
 B: Yes, you know I am very interested in languages, and this year I decided to try to learn German. So I took a German class at night school.
 A: Was it difficult?
 B: Difficult and very boring. So I dropped it after one month.

- 3
 A: So are you still living near school, Carlos?
 B: No, we had to move. So now we're staying out near the airport.
 A: Oh. So what's it like out there?
 B: Not very nice actually. We hear a lot of aircraft noise, and it takes a long time to get into town.
 A: That's too bad. I hate getting stuck in traffic.
 B: Tell me about it!

- 4
 A: How was your year, Devi? Did you enjoy your classes at City College?
 B: Actually, I didn't complete the year there. I was taking a computer course but I decided I wanted to study business instead, so I changed to a new school—New World Business College.
 A: Really? I don't know that school. How was it?
 B: Very good. I learned a lot.

- 5
 A: So did you have a good year, Fadi?
 B: Not bad, thanks. The best thing was my trip last summer.
 A: Where did you go?
 B: Thailand and Vietnam.
 A: Did you enjoy it?
 B: Yeah, it was great.

- 6
 A: Did you have an interesting year, Chloe?
 B: I guess it was interesting. But not what I expected.
 A: Really?
 B: Yeah, I bought a new car.
 A: Well, that sounds interesting.
 B: Not really. I only had it for a month and someone stole it.
 A: No way! That's terrible!

GIVE IT A TRY PAGE 101

1. Talking about future plans

- A: What are you going to do next year?
 B: I'm going to get a job.
 A: Why?
 B: I need to make some money. What are you going to do?
 A: I'm going to go on vacation.

2. Talking about wants

PRACTICE 1

- A: What do you want to do?
B: Well, I want to get a job.
A: Do you want to travel?
B: Yes, I do! What about you?

PRACTICE 2

- A: What place do you want to visit sometime?
B: I want to visit South Africa.

LISTEN TO THIS PAGE 102

- A: So, what are your plans for next year, Robert? And are you still planning to learn Spanish?
R: Maybe not. I think I might try Portuguese instead.
A: Why Portuguese?
R: I'm thinking of going to South America toward the end of the year. I'd like to live in Brazil for a couple of years.
A: Are you just going to travel around Brazil and take a long vacation?
R: I can't afford to do that. I want to get a job in a school there and teach English for a couple of years. I need to save some money to pay off my school loan.
A: Wow! That sounds interesting.
R: I also want to take a photography class.
A: A photography class?
R: Yes. Before I go to Brazil I want to take a class. Then when I'm in Brazil, maybe I can take photos for travel magazines. I hear you can make pretty good money that way.
A: Well, it sounds like you're going to have a busy year. Good luck!
R: Thanks.

1

- A: Where can I find a supermarket?
B: Go up Ford Street to the first corner and turn right onto Wilson Street. It's the second building on your right.
A: Thanks.

2

- A: I'm looking for a mailbox. Is there one around here?
B: Yes, there's one just down the street on the corner of Ford and Wilson. It's next to the drugstore.

3

- A: I'm looking for a coffee shop. Do you know a good one around here?
B: Sure. Go up Ford for a block and turn left. There's one about halfway down the first block, across from the bank.

4

- A: Where's the subway entrance, please?
B: Oh, go up Ford to the first corner and turn right. There's one on the other side of the road, across from the supermarket.

5

- A: I need to see a dentist. Do you know where I can find one?
B: A dentist. Let me see. Oh yes, there's one on Wilson Street. Go down Ford and turn left onto Wilson. There's one about a block down on the left-hand side, across from the hotel.

6

- A: Where can I buy some good magazines?
B: There's a very good bookstore not far from here. It's on Wilson. Turn right at the corner of Wilson and Ford. There's one on the corner, across from the bank.

1

- A: Oh, there's a great TV program on in a few minutes. Do you mind if I turn on the TV?
B: Well actually, I'm trying to study for a test.
A: Oh, never mind.

2

- A: It's awfully hot in here. Can I open the window?
B: It is hot. Yeah, please do.
A: Thanks.

3

- A: Do you mind lending me this book? I'd like to read it. I hear it's really good.
B: Yeah, help yourself.
A: Thanks.

4

- A: Can I use your car tonight? I have a date.
B: Umm, actually I need it myself tonight. I have a date, too.
A: Oh, too bad.

Review Unit 12

LISTEN TO THIS PAGE 105

- A: What are you going to do next summer, Jo?
J: I'm going to go to Australia.
A: Australia. Wow! What are you going to do there?
J: I'm going to travel and I'm also going to work a little to help pay for the trip.
A: Really? What kind of work are you going to do?
J: Oh, anything I can find. Maybe picking fruit or working in a cafe.

- A: Great. Are you going to travel with a friend?
J: No, I'm going on my own. But I'm sure I will meet people there.
A: Where are you going to stay?
J: I'm going to stay in hostels.
A: That sounds good. And how long are you going to be away?
J: For about six months.
A: Terrific. I wish I could go with you!
